RE: Civil Recovery Letters

Let me help you.

My charge is $100 + GST and PST ($112 total). Just send me a cheque, or for faster service, email your credit card number, along with the expiration date and the name on the card. Unfortunately, due to the flood of requests for assistance, most of them asking to be free of charge, I am unable to assist without payment. I can assist people across Canada.

Why you should let me help you.

These Civil Recovery letters have little or no basis in law, but that does not stop these lawyers from harassing you. It also does not stop them from reporting you to a Collection Agency and potentially affect your credit rating. I can stop that.

What do I need?

You need to send me by fax or a good quality scanned email a copy of that letter. Please check before emailing. Many scanners are of a very poor quality. This causes delays. I will then contact that particular lawyer, tell him I am acting for you and that I have advised you not to pay.

I will further advise him that if he wishes to issue a Court Claim, to serve me with it and that I will defend against that Claim and countersue the Store. No charge to you, anywhere in Canada!

And that is the end of it.

Do NOT ignore that letter, they can make your life miserable. Don't let them. Just because you made a silly mistake, you are not a bad person. Their demands are totally unreasonable and would be unlikely to be enforced by a Court. Those lawyers are relying on bluff and intimidation.

Let me know if you want me to help you.

Yours Sincerely,

GERRY M. LAARAKKER LAW CORP.
